

The purpose of the TECH TRAINING program is to help improve the technical level of our soccer players through a purposeful and systematic training program by emphasizing technical improvement on a foundation of innovation and repetition over a continuous period of time.

For more info and training days please click here